Program Overview and Schedules for Bel Air location:

Early Music Education (0-4 yrs): This class will focus on bonding through music with caregiver and child. The class will consist of singing, dancing, instrument playing, small and gross motor movement, and early communication skills. This class will meet weekly for 30 minutes Mondays at 4:30pm and Tuesdays at 10am. Cost is $125 for 10 weeks.

Big Kids Early Music Education (3-5yrs): This class will include parent participation as kids get their first dose of music education. This is a great precursor to private lessons to begin theory, vocabulary, and early rhythmic and melodic skills. This class will last approximately 30-40 minutes weekly Tuesdays at 11am and Thursdays at 2:30pm. Cost is $140 for 10 weeks.

*Rock Band (teen and young adult): This group will meet weekly for 45-60 minutes. Each participant will have a band job/responsibility to include instrument care, gig schedule, rehearsal schedule/set list, etc. This group will focus on building social skills through team work and cooperating as members towards a common goal of perming together in the band. Singers, drummer, guitarists, keyboardist all needed. Cost is $25/week.

*Early Intervention: This group will meet weekly for 30 minutes. It will focus on early childhood development goals such as colors, opposites, letters, numbers, communication skills, etc through the fun use of music as a teaching tool. Will include the caregiver with the child in singing, movement, and instrument playing. Tuesdays at 10:30am. $150 for 10 weeks.

*Music and Yoga: This group will use music therapy techniques paired with yoga to address physical, emotional, and sensorimotor needs. This class will be designed for parents and/or siblings to participate along with their loved one. The group will run 45 minutes on Tuesdays at 6:30pm. Cost is $200 per family for 10 weeks.

Group Ukulele: These will be 30 minute group ukulele lessons for beginning students. $15 per lesson or $20 for parent/child pair. Mondays at 6:30pm.

*indicates geared towards special needs, but open to all!
